

Read Across Homestead!

Help Homestead celebrate reading! Beginning on Monday, March 15th Homestead will be celebrating reading all week long. We have come up with lots of ways to show our love of reading. Check out below to see how you can participate and join in the fun!

Monday, March 15th - Favorite Picks Day

What is your favorite book to read? Bring it to school on this day to share with your class. Be on the lookout for Homestead staff members favorite books from when they were little and pictures of what they looked like. Also be sure to stop by the LRC for some of their favorite picks to check out!!

Tuesday, March 16th – Wear Something You Can Read Day

Ever catch yourself reading other people's shirts as they walk by. Now is the time to catch everyone else's eyes as you dress in your favorite piece of clothing that contains words. Have fun making everyone read your clothes!

Wednesday, March 17th – Cozy Up to a Good Book

Dress in your pj's or your comfiest clothes and curl up with a good book throughout the day during D.E.A.R. (Drop Everything And Read) time.

Thursday, March 18th – Dress as Your Favorite Book Character

Who do you like to read about? Is it Ramona Quimby or maybe Skippyjon Jones? Help Homestead get excited for reading night by dressing as your favorite book character.

Be sure to grab your family and join all of Homestead's Readers for the Iditarod Family reading night and stop by the book fair for some great books to read!

Friday, March 19th – Homestead Catches the Reading Spirit

Dress in your favorite Homestead spirit wear to show that we are excited about reading!
